

EASTER BUNNY

The Easter Bunny will come, they said, Father.

That's what they told the children,
While we were in lockdown,
Isolated in our homes,
Hiding away from sight
Because of potential danger.
They reassured the children that
The Easter bunny would find them
To surprise and excite,
And infuse the children with wonder and amazement.

It reminds me that, after Easter,
Your disciples went into lockdown,
Hiding away from sight,
Because of potential danger.
Then you appeared,
Reassured them that you had come,
To surprise and excite.
And infuse the disciples with wonder and amazement.

You still come, Father,
When we are locked down in fear and trepidation,
To reassure us of your presence,
To surprise and excite,
And infuse our lives with wonder and amazement.

*Praise the Lord, my soul! All my being, praise his holy name!
Praise the Lord, my soul, and do not forget how kind he is. He forgives all my sins and heals all my diseases. He keeps me from the grave and blesses me with love and mercy. He fills my life with good things, so that I stay young and strong like an eagle. (Psalm 103: 1–5, GNT)*
